DECLARATION

PERSPECTIVE

The Declaration Staff of 1979 would like to view this year from varying perspectives.

Since God wants us to become more like Him, through studying His Word and world, we can learn about His perspective on life. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Proverbs 1:7

The administration, faculty and staff have many valuable insights to enlarge our point of view, and we welcome them, also.

Finally, the students of Hesperia Christian School provide a rich source of learning. Through sharing of problems and interaction with one another, we are allowing ourselves to "know fully, just as (we) also have been fully known." I Corinthians 13:12.

It is with these guidelines that we present to you Declaration 1979

This Book Belongs to

Carolyn Crisler

Objectives

- To teach that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came to earth to die for our sin.
- To teach the necessity of being born again by the Spirit of God by receiving the Lord Jesus Christ.
- To teach that growth in the Christian life depends upon fellowship with God through Bible reading, prayer, and service.
- To teach that the Bible is the only Word of God. It is practical and important.
- To teach the application of Biblical principles to every part of daily life.
- To teach the Christian social graces.
- To stress the urgency of world missions.
- To teach the student to get along with non-Christians and with Christians who hold differing views.
- To integrate subjects with the Bible.
- To teach that God is the Creator and sustainer of the universe and of man.
- To teach the student to apply himself to his work and to fulfill his various responsibilities.
- To teach the student to work independently and cooperatively.
- To teach the student to think for himself and to stand up for his personal convictions in the face of pressure.
- To develop the creative skills of the student.
- To develop an appreciation of the fine arts.
- To develop effective communication skills of the student.
- To teach the Knowledge and skills required for future study or for occupational competence.
- To develop desire and discretion in wholesome physical and mental recreation.
- To teach our American heritage and the current problems facing our country and the world.
- To show the student his present civic responsibilities and to prepare him for adult responsibility as a Christian citizen of our nation.

Dedication

DECLARATION, 1979 is dedicated to you, Mrs. Henrietta Brolsma. Your faithful service at Hesperia Christian School for the past 13 years is greatly appreciated by the staff, administrators and students. Trisha Honeycutt and David Wall remember your early concern for them in Kindergarten and are pleased to have you observe their progress through the years. Your love and encouragement have extended outside the boundaries of a classroom to others: to your family of seven children, to your various church associations and involvements, to the Christian Women's Club, to your participation in many youth-oriented programs. All who have come in contact with you have been touched by your compassion and abiding optimism. Your faith in God has uplifted many of us at times when we were sagging. Thank you for sharing your life with us, Mrs. Brolsma. We hope you enjoy this year book.

ADMINISTRATION

Teachers' Proverbs

Mr. Comer: "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. James 1:2-3"

Miss Crain: "For bodily discipline is only of little profit, but godliness is profitable for all things, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come." I Tim. 4:8

Mr. Franke: "Do not be anxious then, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'With what shall we clothe ourselves?' For all these things the Gentiles eagerly seek; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you." Matt. 6:31-33

Mr. Hamilton: "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things." Phil. 4:8

1. The first step is to identify the main topic of the document. This is often found in the title or the first few paragraphs.

2. Next, we need to determine the purpose of the document. Is it to inform, persuade, or entertain? This will help us understand the tone and style.

3. We should also look for key words or phrases that are repeated throughout the text. These can be important for understanding the main ideas.

4. Finally, we need to consider the audience. Who is the document written for? This will help us understand the level of detail and the type of language used.

ADDITION

GRACE BAPTIST EXTENSION

Grace Baptist School was an extension of the Episcopal Christian School at Grace Baptist Church on 11th Street. The school served grades K-2, 3-4-5 and a Special Education unit. It included four teachers and a church secretary.

This Extension Program enabled the teachers to minister to the needs of many new families represented by the seventy children who attended.

There was a warm close feeling among the students and staff. They rejoiced together with each addition of playground equipment and the advent of new boards in late October was welcomed by all. It was a good year and a good place to go to school.

I Corinthians 13:11-13

When I was a child I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; now that I have become a man, I am done with childish ways and have put them aside. For now we are looking in a message that gives only a dim (blurred) reflection (of reality as in a riddle or enigma) but then (when perfection comes) we shall see in reality and face to face! Now I know in part (imperfectly); but then I shall know and understand fully and clearly (even in the same manner as I have been fully and clearly known and understood by God).

And so faith, hope, love abide; faith, conviction and belief respecting man's relation to God and divine things; hope, joyful and confident expectation of eternal salvation; love, true affection for God and man, growing out of God's love for and in us, these three, but the greatest of these is love.

As you go through this life, always remember God and His Word. Remember to walk with Him.

We hope and pray that God will be with you in the coming years.

Our very best wishes to the class of '79.

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things?

Don't worry about anything. Instead pray about everything, telling God your needs and don't forget to thank Him for His answers. If you do this, you will experience God's peace, which is far more wonderful than the human mind can understand.
